PREFACE

"Through the Lens" of our camera the annual staff has tried to capture the spirit and the school life of the 1954-55 student body. We hope as you turn the pages of this book that "Through the Lens" you will be reminded of the part you took in school life.

Dear Louisa, know how it's been nice knowing you since grade school have fun this summer your horses.

*A friend,

Dear Sonja,
It was fun having you in art class this year and then comparing my terrible work to your good work I always thought you did so good. I'll wish you a lot of luck even if you don't need it and hope to see you next year

Dear Sonja,
We'll
another year is done. It won't be long. I wish you a lot of luck in the future and be good

SENIORS ACHIEVE END OF SCHOOL CAREERS

Never again will the lens of our camera focus on the class of 1955.

The first time the class came before a camera was with the stunt "Hot Rod Race" which took fourth place. The season ticket drive found the freshmen with a third but that didn't discourage President Jerry Flansburg, Vice-President Bill Yates, Secretary Dan Doran and Yell Leader Sharon Kremer. Glory came next with the Frolic "Alice in Wonderland."

Maroon and white class colors were flying high when in the sophomore year they took third in the stunt assembly with "Ali Puyallup and Forty Thieves." Spirits were high after a successful Hop named "Daffodil Daze." President Bill Yates, Vice-President Chris Lunn, Secretary Marie Nelson, and Yell Leader Kay Lasham led the class to a second place in the season ticket drive.

Many pictures were taken of the second place junior stunt "Miss Victory meets Puyallup Viking." Tom Watkin, president; Joyce Shaffer, vice president; Carole Hurst, secretary; and Kay Lasham, yell leader, led the class to second in the season ticket drive and sponsored "Sea Mist" as their Prom.

The last class officers were Jerry Carlisle, president; Wendell Dobson, vice-president; Irma Doyle, secretary; and Sharon Kremer, yell leader. They led off by capturing first in the season ticket drive and tied for second in the stunt entitled "Pinocchio Puyallup." "Midnight Magic" was a huge success put on by the seniors.

As the class of 1955 departs from Puyallup High to take their place in the world they will feel the class yell has been fulfilled, "We're the class that's got the drive, 1-9-5-5."

JUNIORS VICTORIOUS IN STUNT ASSEMBLY

The class of 1956 has once again proven their ability for leadership. Guided by their class president, Bill Decker, they succeeded in taking top honors in the stunt assembly. Their stunt, "Mother Victory Goose", was judged the best. Although placing fourth in the annual season ticket drive, they are looking forward to a successful senior year. They brought an end to their successful year by presenting the Junior Prom. Advising the class this year were Jim Turman, Joe Casey, Art Larson, Paul Simons, Gladys Sorenson, Frances Stockert, and Lorriane Flower.

FRESHMEN MOVE TO SENIOR HIGH

Preparing themselves for the big step into senior high are the freshman. They are eagerly awaiting fall when they will become sophomores. They made a good showing by tying the seniors for second place with their stunt, "A Thanksgiving Carole", and placing third in the season ticket drive. Guiding them were Ernie Cementina, Ralph Eikenberry, Mary Ness, Carl Wasmund and Jean Watson.

FACULTY

The Viking Honors

Miss Elizabeth Bunn for her long service and for the artistic inspiration she has given thousands of Puyallup students. Since 1945 until her retirement at the close of this school year, she has taught art in the junior high school. Previously she taught 22 consecutive years in Maplewood and Spinning elementary schools, with a couple of years previous to that at Spinning, but interrupted by a return to college. Students and teachers alike will miss her.

Dear Lonja
It has been lots of fun sitting next to you in English. I hope
I have you in some of my classes next year. Lots to a great swell girl. I sure did like you. Love
Char

BOARD OF EDUCATION INITIATES JUNIOR HIGH

The people of the city elected five of its citizens to serve on the school board to decide on the problems of the school. It was this board which made the final decision of putting the Junior High Bond issue on the ballot. They along with Mr. Hanawalt and Mr. Catron drew up a budget for the school system. These citizens give up their time to meet twice a month for the purpose of seeing that the taxes are wisely spent. Members of the board were Howard Thomas, president, Eileen Kalles, Harris Green, Dr. Leo Sulkosky, and Melvin Dennis.

The Bond Boosters committee, consisting of lay people, formed in September, 1954, for the purpose of promoting the $850,000 bond issue. This committee raised campaign funds and sponsored the biggest campaign for the school district in its history. The chairman was Everett A. Dickinsen. Planners hope to start building this July so it can be used in September, 1956.

THEY HEAD THE PRODUCTION

Marion Catron, serving as business manager handled all financial problems of the Puyallup Schools.

Robert Logan, lunchroom supervisor was in charge of the candy counters and the cafeterias of the entire school district.

The secretaries of the superintendent's office were kept busy this year with typing letters, answering telephones, and filing. Serving as secretaries were Mrs. Audrey Dye, Mrs. Joan Frankhauser and Mrs. Vera Whitford.

Fred Simons, curriculum director, was in charge of the book room for the high school, served as adviser for the assembly committee, and was director of both adult education and evening school.

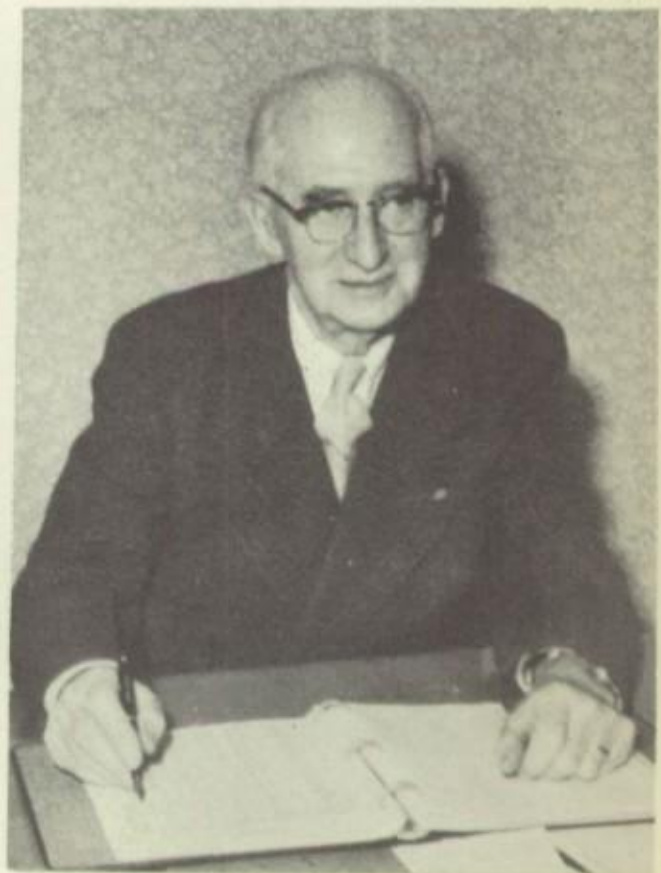

Below: Fred Simons, Curriculum Director.

Paul B. Hanawalt, superintendent, was responsible for the management of the entire school district and worked with the school board in carrying out their policies. He is also an active leader of the community and in educational work.

This past year the administration and teachers traveled to many of the different schools to get ideas for the new junior high. The students were also polled to find their ideas on what should be included in the school. This was done to have the best facilities for both education and recreation.

ADMINISTRATION, FACULTY WORK TOGETHER

Writing tardy slips and answering telephones were just a few of the duties of our secretaries. Ruth Ocheltree and Carol Faker worked in the high school office while Donna Sinner was in the guidance office.

Kurt Bargmeyer, guidance director, helped students with their problems, planned vocational conferences and scholarships and kept permanent records of past and present students.

Messages from the office:

"Puyallup Junior-Senior High School students can well be proud of their fine record in activities during this school year. Many cups and other high honors have come our way due to the hard work and splendid cooperation of the teachers and the students who participated."

Don Hartung

"This is my 35th year in the Puyallup Public Schools. During the past 25 years it has been my pleasure and privilege to serve as principal of Puyallup High School. When I first became principal and ever since that time I have strived to maintain this standard—"Whatever we do in Puyallup High, let's always strive to do our best." In our studies, plays, Viking Varieties, concerts, debates, oratorical contests, athletics, and in all other activities, we have adopted that standard. It has made our school one of the best high schools in the State of Washington, and I hope we will always maintain that high standard.

THEY KEEP WHEELS ROLLING

Mr. Fred Kropf, weed controller, told biology classes that three billion dollars are lost each year because of weeds.

This past winter Bill Sievers came to light the boilers at 5 a.m. so that we would have a warm school. Along with him, Ben Morrison, Erwin Westmark, Mike Quantro, and Harry Brian kept the rooms and halls in good condition.

A friend to all girls was Louise Redford, the matron. She looked after girls who were ill and helped them with their problems.

Between 11:15 and 11:55 the busiest people around PHS were the cooks. They worked all day to give us a good noon meal.

A great service to students outside of walking distances to school was performed by our bus drivers Bob Angst, Archie Wright, Bob Stone, Arlot Duncan, Neal Burton, Ernest Luchow, Carel Nelson, Jim Beach was absent from the picture.

The cameraman focused on John Duenhoelter, who spent the year 1954-55 as an exchange student here. John arrived in Puyallup in August from Germany, and spent the year getting acquainted with American ways and trying to explain some of his ideas to his Puyallup friends. The purpose of the exchange student program was to foster international cooperation and understanding. The camera catches John as he passes the relay baton, an act of team cooperation.

Dear Sonja
I am sorry
I have gotten always

The cameraman focused on Queen Elvera I, who reigned over the Puyallup Valley Daffodil Festival, one of the highlights of student body activities. Three other Puyallup High girls, Rosemary Fly, Gloria Minarsich, and Judy Nelson were members of the court.

STUDENTS COLLECT MONEY FOR ROCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL

SENIOR HIGH BOARD OF CONTROL

Two of the important jobs of the Board of Control are stamping season tickets and conducting home room discussion. This year's president of the student body was Bill Yates, who presided over all meetings of the board. He was assisted by Orlyn Peterson, vice president; Janis Platter, secretary; and Bette Schakohl, yell queen.

Each home room elected a representative to the board. The Board of Control took up collections in the home room classes to help Rochester High School, which had burnt down. This year it was voted by the board to have no noise makers at future season ticket drive assemblies. They also voted that the Alma Mater be revived. The board had a joint Board of Control meeting with Clover Park.

JUNIOR HIGH PRACTICES WAYS OF DEMOCRACY

JUNIOR HIGH BOARD OF CONTROL

The activities of the Junior High Student Body have been controlled by the Junior High Board of Control, acting as a judicial body in cooperation with the faculty and higher administration of school life. This board, like that in senior high, had one student as a representative from each home room. These students bring back to the home rooms the results of the discussion and information they obtained.

This year the Junior High Board of Control checked lockers, and discussed conduct in assemblies.

Presiding over the junior high board was Dennis Woldhagen, and the other student body officers were as follows: Elizabeth Ward, vice president; Janice Bagiiski, secretary; and Viola Bliner, yell leader.

Faculty advisers were Don Hartung and Eldon Angelo, who aided greatly in the solution of difficult problems.

VANGUARD STAFF EDITS EIGHT PAGE TABLOID

The Viking Vanguard Staff provided the paper for the student body every two weeks for the third year, but the big news this year was the new size. An eight page, five column tabloid was initiated by the staff after The Puyallup Valley Tribune, printers, installed a new press.

Very few students realize all the work involved in getting a story, copyreading it, typing it with a carbon copy, copyreading it again, and sending it to the shop. After a galley of type has been made at the shop the story must be reread again and sent back to the shop for corrections. The pages must be made up, copyread, pictures engraved, headlines written, and last but not least the papers must be distributed to the sixth period classes.

This year's staff, unlike last year's, changed editors every three issues. The following were the chief workers on the staff: Wendell Dobson, Jerry Carlisle, David Allmendinger, David Kalles, Marvin Hartshorn, and Ralph Andresen. Mary Marshall was the business manager all year; Nancy Jamison, circulation manager. Early in the spring the staff started to break in new students for the coming year.

Harold Snodgrass was the adviser of the Vanguard Staff.

ANNUAL STAFF LOOKS THROUGH LENS OF "55"

Trying to find an unusual cover, theme, and writing original copy are a few of the problems of the annual staff members.

The 1955 publication of the Viking was edited by at Blanchfield; Gloria Grout acted as business manager, bringing for money and advertising matter. Mr. Harold Snodgrass was the annual adviser for the year.

Heading the senior section was Kay Lasham with assistance from Irma Doyle. It was their job to make the senior section layouts, paste pictures, and type the list of activities for all seniors. Mary Abbott headed the activity section with help from Lois Johnson, Joy Lepley, and Danny Vesey. Barbara Brown was the snapshot editor and Janet Akers dummy editor. The faculty section was Dorothy Alexander and the classes section Linda Grace.

Barbara Woodward, David Kalles, and David Allmendinger were sport editors. Roberta McGahey and Jerry Carlisle sold ads.

The photographers were Herb Wornom, Connie Grunder, Ned Johnson and Gary Etzel.

The section editors were responsible for seeing that the pages were made up and copy was written.

300 ATTEND JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS' CLUB MIXER IN FALL

JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS CLUB

Junior high girls enjoy mixer by the hundreds.

On October 12 the Junior High Girls' Club mixer was presented depicting for their theme Halloween. Over 300 girls attended and enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Every homeroom elects a representative to the cabinet. Automatic membership in the girls' club is received by every girl who enters Junior High.

Last spring the Junior and Senior High Girls Clubs cooperated with the clothing department in presenting the annual Style Show and Mother and Daughter tea. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

The girls decorated the halls with cedar and fir for the Christmas spirit around the school.

The following guided the girls through this eventful year: president, Sandra Mayer; vice president, Sharon Smith; secretary, Janice Hammermaster; and adviser, Mrs. Emeline Rentsch.

SENIOR HIGH GIRLS PRESENT MIXER, TEA

GIRLS CLUB MIXER

In the style show at the girls' club mixer were K. Lasham, P. Blanchfield, B. Miller, M. Murray.

"New Faces" was the theme of the Senior High Girls' Club mixer this year. The mixer was presented for the purpose of discovering new friends. The mixer is one of the three major projects of the Girls' Club. They are the one responsible for brightening up the halls around Christmastime with red ribbons, cedar, and fir. The annual Mothers' and Daughters' tea and style show, which the Senior and Junior Girls' Clubs and clothing department sponsored, was held this spring. The Senior High Girls' Club, like that of the Junior High, receive automatic membership to the girls' club.

The following guided the girls through this eventful year: president, Gerda Mayer; vice president, Sharon Kremer; secretary, Rosie Cabanas; and Joyce Shaffer, historian. The advisor was Miss Palma Larson.

Y GROUPS OF 54-55 BUSY WITH MANY PROJECTS

Many projects have been worked on this year by the Tri-Hi-Y's and the Hi-Y's.

Several clubs were busy making scrapbooks for various children's homes. Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas favors were also made for the hospital in Puyallup and the Lutheran Home.

GET OUT AND VOTE CAMPAIGN

Janet Akers and Danny Vesey were two of many "Y" club members who were on call to baby sit for voters.

Torch Tri-Hi-Y has been keeping the drivers' training car clean and also making regular visits to their adopted grandmothers at the Valley Home.

Torch Hi-Y has kept the gym floor clean during the halftime at each basketball game.

Viking Tri-Hi-Y put on a Christmas program for the Lutheran Home, and also prepared a Christmas food basket.

Viking Hi-Y lined the field for the football games. The boys also put up the Christmas trees that decorated Puyallup during the holidays.

Puyallup Tri-Hi-Y has been in charge of sorting out and buying new records for the "rec." They also gave parties for the Cushman Indian and Good Samaritan hospitals.

Amica Tri-Hi-Y kept the school grounds looking neat and clean by picking up papers on the grounds, and kept the inside of the school neat by washing the windows.

During the year each club sponsored dances at the "rec" and some have had candy, cake, and pickle sales in the school and downtown. Alumni parties were also one of the main features of the year.

As a result of the projects points were acquired toward the club's charter.

The Y Council, headed by Sharon Kremer, president, was busy this year discussing the problems of the Y clubs. One of their projects was a roller skating party and another was selling candy.

Hammermaster, P. Halverson, J. Gibbons.

The Rec Board consisted of four officers of each Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y with a total of twenty-four members. The Rec Board met on Tuesday nights when they needed to. The chief problem of the Rec Board was to punish students who needed to be punished for doing wrong at the Rec. The Board worked on and talked about ways of improving the Rec. This group did not have officers but the officers of the Hi-Y Council usually led the group. Bob Leonard was the adviser.

SENIOR HIGH BAND ENTERTAINS CANADIANS

Both the Senior High Band and Orchestra, under the direction of Ed Krenz, as in previous years, raised money to help pay their expenses by selling nuts before Thanksgiving.

Highlights of the year were the Swing Concert, held February 18, the Western Washington Band and Orchestra Contest, and the annual Spring Concert. Many members of the band and orchestra participated in the Western Washington Solo Contest held February 26, in Bremerton.

SENIOR HIGH ORCHESTRA

Row One: J. Sawyer, G. Craig, P. Kooser, C. Bartness, J. Riebold, N. Helander, J. Friese. Row Two: W. McCormick, J. Elliott, M. Rickert, M. Rhea, S. Helander, C. Fox. Row 3: L. Ward, K. Quirre, G. SENIOR HIGH ORCHESTRA PLAYS IN SUMNER

Activities would be rather dull at times without the support of the Senior High Band. This group has spent many hours practicing in order to furnish half time entertainment during football and basketball games. Other band activities included playing at pep assemblies and marching in the annual Daffodil Festival Parade.

The band also performed for Canadians in Vancouver during a professional football game.

The Senior High Orchestra participated in the Christmas program and, along with the band, played for an exchange assembly at Sumner High School. Both groups played at the Western Washington Fair..

ENSEMBLES, DANCE BAND

Many instrumental groups took part in the Western Washington Ensemble and Solo Contest held at Bremerton in February.

The cornet quartet, French horn trio, senior clarinet quartet and the flute quartet received superior ratings.

The violin quartet, string quartet, junior clarinet quartet, and string trio received excellent ratings.

Many members of both the junior and senior high band and orchestra participated in the solo contest.

Those who received superior ratings were Margaret Cox, Rudy Volkman, Michael Tobin, Elizabeth Ward, Tom Stinson, Diane Whitman, Joe Dinwiddie, Mike O'Dell and Dick Redmond.

Carolyn Elliott, Marnell Clement, Larry Whitman, David Durkee, Anne Lepley, Bruce Caldwell, Larry McGowan, Lowell Anderson, and Judy Friese received excellent ratings.

The dance band participated in exchange assemblies with Kent and Franklin Pierce.

JUNIOR BAND, ORCHESTRA PLAY IN CONTEST

The Junior High Band, directed by Ed Krenz, added spirit to the Junior High pep assemblies during the school year. Highlights of the year were marching in the Daffodil Parade, competing in the Western Washington Band Contest, and playing in the Spring Concert.

The Junior High Orchestra, under the direction of Frances Stoeckert, had a busy year and participated in the Orchestra Contest and also performed in the Spring Concert.

Both groups are preparing for the time when they will be eligible to become members of the advanced band and orchestra.

JUNIOR CHORUS, GLEE CLUB SING IN CONCERT

Many outstanding vocalists are lost each year through graduation. Sources of replacement for this vocal musical talent come from two junior high vocal groups, the Chorus and Girls' Glee Club. The purpose of these groups is to train for participation with more advanced musical groups in future years.

Under the direction of Louis Owens, the Girls' Glee Club practiced each Wednesday and Friday morning at 8 a.m. The group participated in the annual Spring Concert and took part in the Christmas program.

The Junior High Chorus also took part in the annual Spring Concert.

FFA RECEIVES

F. F. A.

The Future Farmers of America has many purposes. Some of the most important are: to develop complex, aggressive, rural, and agricultural leadership; to create a love of country life, and develop more interest in the intelligent choice of farming occupations; to strengthen the confidence of farm boys and young men in themselves and their work. Another aim is to develop character, train for useful citizenship, and foster patriotism. Still another purpose is to encourage improvement in scholarship, and to practice thrift.

Among the successful F. F. A. projects completed this year was the Christmas Basket Project under the chairmanship of Mark Wilson. Under this project one family in the community was given a large supply of food for the holidays. During F. F. A. week, a display showing the work of the F. F. A. was put in a downtown store window.

Two other projects were entering an exhibit at the Fair, which received a blue ribbon, and building a concession stand down at Viking Field. The concession stand wasn't used this year for the project was not completed until after football season.

AWARDS FOR PROJECTS

F. F. A.

This year the big social event was the annual banquet held on Saint Patrick's Day. At this time awards were given for the best home project, and the best projects for dairy, beef, poultry, swine, horticulture, and farm mechanics. A business man in the community who has done outstanding work with the F. F. A. members was made an honorary member of the Puyallup F. F. A. He was Dr. Vitt Ferrucci.

The Kiwanis awards were the following: Dairy—Alden Wilson, Beef—Bob Markholt, and Cliff Waller received poultry, horticulture, and farm mechanics. Richard Abbott received an award for the best award for the best freshman notebook. The runnerup was Billy Bell. Third year letters were obtained by Butch Dennis and Alden Wilson. First year letters were obtained by Ted Hanstad, Bob Williams and Ted Abbott. Butch Dennis was voted the most outstanding F. F. A. member by his fellow classmates and was awarded the Washington State Bankers' Award

STAGE CREW

Designing original sets for plays and Viking Varieties was one of the chief projects of the stage crew.

The group worked during regular stagecrew class and also, when necessary, after school and evenings. They also handled lighting, curtains, sound effects, and spotlights for Community Concerts and the Orthopedic Guild style show.

Mr. Howard Shull was advisor.

VIKING PATROL

SEASON TICKET COMMITTEE

Girls chosen from the bookkeeping classes handled all individual season ticket payments and records, and kept reluctant students reminded that they still owed the school money.

Once a week the committee members had stamps, pads, and charts ready for all home room representatives. Then they counted and deposited the money collected. Margaret Hughes was advisor.

PROJECTION CREW

Instructional movies play an important part in modern education, and it was the job of the projection crew to bring them to the classroom.

The projection crew also handled all public address systems in the school.

Ralph Eikenberry took over the advisory position for the group after George Walter became ill.

STAGE CLASS AND CREW

VIKING PATROL

Among the many duties of the members of Viking Patrol was seeing that students keep off the grass, stopping rowdiness in the halls, and seeing that bicycle rules were heeded. This club was a service organization of junior high. Eldon Angelo was advisor.

The boys are elected by present members and remain in the group until the end of their freshman year.

SEASON TICKET COMMITTEE

Robert McGahey, Sheila Maitland, Miss Margaret Hughes.

ART CLUB

Decorating windows of a number of downtown stores at Halloween was one of the many projects sponsored by the Art Club.

Officers for the past year were Barbara Brown, president; John MacKay, vice president; and Diane Schneider, secretary. Gladys Sorenson was advisor.

Making posters for Viking Varieties, participating in the art exhibit at the fair, decorating the auditorium at Christmas, and decorating for the faculty tea in February were other projects sponsored by this group.

ART CLUB

Row One: L. McAllister, J. Daily, D. Schneider, B. Thorson. Row Two: J. MacKay, M. Callahan, L. Olson, C. Wallace, M. Rhea, K. Kurz, B. Brown. Row Three: B. Daily, Miss Sorenson, J. Linder, C. Todd, R. Jonas, D. Vesey.

WASHINGTON RETAILER'S CLUB

Attending the state convention in Bellingham on March 27, 28, and 29 was the high spot of the year for the Washington Retailer's Club.

They also sponsored a record sale and a cake sale to raise money for the convention. Members of this group toured different businesses to learn how they were operated. Miss Hilda Skreen was advisor.

SMOKING COMMITTEE

Student participation in school affairs is reflected in the activity of the smoking committee. This group makes and enforces regulations concerning smoking in the vicinity of the school. Students who violate these rules are called before the committee and are required to sign a pledge of obedience.

Jim Turman acted as advisor for this group. Each year two sophomore boys are elected to smoking committee and remain members throughout senior high.

TICKET SELLERS COMMITTEE

Row One: J. Parker, A. Sommers. Row Two: Mr. Vollen, C. Bartness.

TICKET COMMITTEE

Selling tickets and counting the money at every school function that requires admission was the job of the girls who worked as ticket sellers. At football and basketball games, track meets, concerts and plays they served the public.

The committee members are selected by their supervisor, Robert Vollen.

TOY SHOP SCORES A HIT WITH AUDIENCE

Viking Varieties headlined grey-haired directors of Broadway shows, dancing dolls, turn of the century gamblers and the worried director of a mission. This musical extravaganza was written by senior high students Bob Daily, Carol Hurst, John MacKay and Judy Friese with the help of Mr. Louis Owens.

The first scene, Backstage, was very different from previous shows for it started at the end of a show. It showed how "show people" act and some of the "characters" that work backstage. The songs used in this scene were: "Hallelujah," "Meet Me in St. Louis," "St. Louis Express," the latter written by Bob Daily, "Softly, as in a Morning Sunrise," "Tuneup Time," "Wish You Were Here" and "It's a Most Unusual Day."

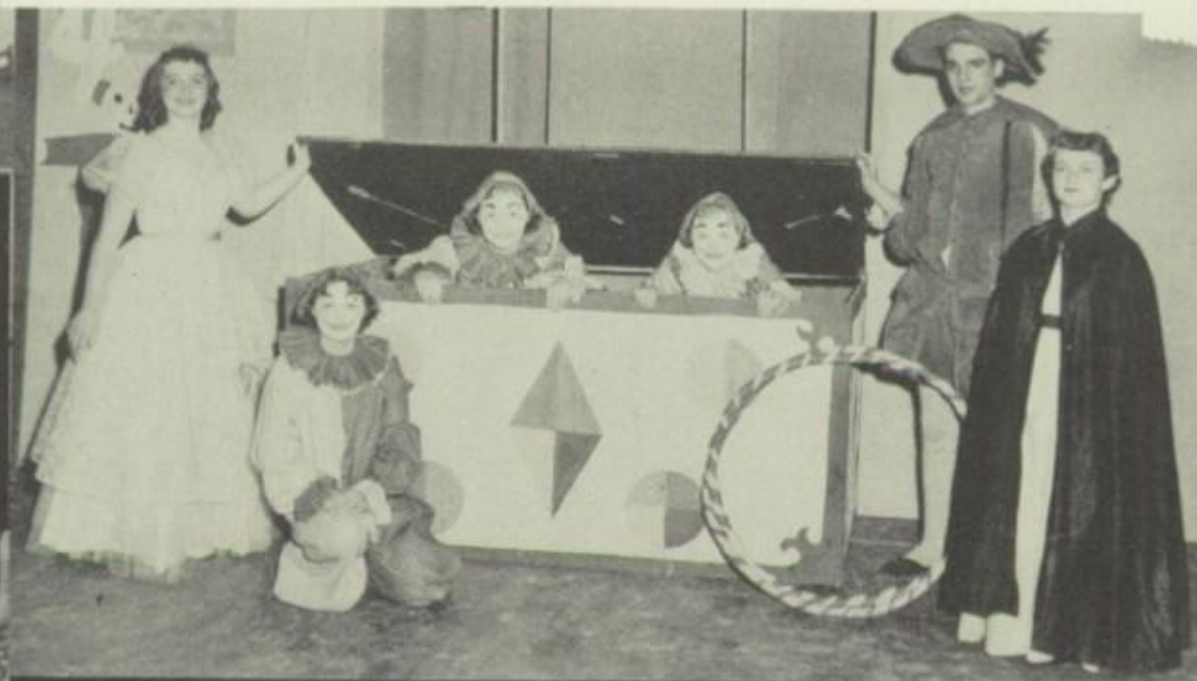

The next scene was "Toyshop" which took place in Copenhagen with many solo dances. Some of these were "Six Dancing Feet," "A Dutch Puppett," "Mr. Banjo," "Music Box Doll," "Jack in the Box," a tumbling group, "Paper Doll Dance," "Chinaman," and "The Wooden Soldiers." Songs used in this scene were: "Wonderful Copenhagen," "Inchworm," and "Merchant Song," an original song composed by Judy Friese, "Herkimer the Homely Doll" was sung by Bob Markholt and Carol Hurst.

Luther Criss and Sharon Hotz sang "When You Are in Love," while Joette Nish and Francis Delano had solo ballet dances. By using two black lights a new effect was achieved for the audience. The black lighting was used for the soldiers and the Six Dancing Feet. Fluorescent color on their costumes made these scenes impressive.

An excellent intermission was provided for this year. Judy Leterneau, Judy Jochimsen, Dorothy Dall, Jill Gibbons, and Richard Green performed a skit "Country Life." Dear John and Marsha Letter was pantomimed by Donna Sierman and Janet Bond. A ventriloquist act, "Talking Dolls, Tom and Jerry," was done by Claudette and Jeanette Baker.

The last scene "Turn of the Century," used many songs including "Wait Till the Sun Shines Nellie," sung by Judy Ferris, Francis Delano, Jerry Williams and Tony Fox; "Oldest Established," done by John MacKay, Roger Ufkes and Bill Siebler, while Judy and Sharon Hotz sang "Coney Island Baby." Others were "Oh You Beautiful Doll," "Strangled Opera," and "Can Can." Many well-organized committees helped make this production a success. Mr. Louis Owens was the director, and Mrs. Joan Kern directed dances.

Viking Varieties: 1. Dancing doll. 2. Extra Entertainment put on by the drama class. 3. Floradora group in Turn of the Century. 4. Tumbling glowns and cast. 5. Dancing Raggedy Anns. 6. Left: In this typical ranch scene are Carol Carlisle, Lee Markholt, Bob Markholt, Bill Zimmerman, Elvera Sommer, Sylvia Yates, Joanne Van Lierop, Ann Littlefield, and Diane Peterson.

SENIOR CLASS SPONSORS 'GIRL CRAZY'

Eleven hundred people viewed the Senior Class Play, "Girl Crazy" on November 18 and 19.

The play revolved around Danny Churchill played by Bob Daily who was a playboy from New York. Danny was to receive an inheritance after staying in the west for a year on his grandfather's ranch.

While Danny was there he fell in love with Molly Gray, played by Sally Newenhof. In her opinion Danny was just a playboy, not a business man as he tried to prove to her.

A touch of humor was added to the play by Louie, the cab driver from Brooklyn, who was played by Tim Rose.

Others participating in the play were Rose, a man-crazy girl from Brooklyn, played by Norma Brock; Lank, a cold-blooded killer, played by Luther Criss; Sam Mason, another playboy from New York, and Danny's rival for Molly, played by John MacKay; Tess, Danny's old girl friend from New York, played by Carol Carlisle; Jake, an old character of the Churchill Ranch, played by Lee Markholt; guests at the dude rance, played by Ann Littlefield, Joanne VanLierop, Alvera Sommers, Sylvia Yates, and Diane Peterson; two cowboys, portrayed by Bill Zimmerman and Bob Markholt; Pete, a disreputable Mexican, played by Bryce Moore; a college educated Indian, played by Wendell Dobson.

This all school play was directed by Morris Hendrickson. The play was his first three act production.

Top: In the climax of the play Doug Lutterman, Wendell Dobson, Marv Hartshorn, Joy Stanley, Ramona Sheppard, Diane Peterson, Judy Kalles, Ann Littlefield, Janet Shaffer and Joy Shaffer look to Bill Decker as their hero.

Left: Bob Markholt as the monster tries to kill Judy Kalles while Janet Shaffer smiles because she thinks that it is Bill Decker in disguise.

A thrilling play, "Ghost Wanted," sponsored by the Junior Class was put on the afternoon of March 17 and the evening of March 18.

The play revolved around the supposed zombies of Simon Gore, portrayed by Bob Markholt and created by Bob Daily.

Bill Decker and Ann Littlefield had the lead in the play, Hugo Bromley and Ginger Stromgay. Gale Stormgay, Ginger's older sister, was played by Ramona Shepard. Jeffery Hall, a friend of Hugo's, was played by Marv Hartshorn.

Hugo and Jeff came to the island because of a newspaper want ad asking for a ghost. Ginger has put the want ad in the paper to cure their grandmother, Judy Kalles, of believing in Zombies because of the influence of Professor de Vallan, Wendell Dobson and Madam Zolga, Joy Stanley.

Nora Vane, a relative of Simon Gore, who brings the sheriff to investigate his death was played by Diane Peterson.

The climax of the play comes when Hatcher, the old nouseman, played by Bob Daily, confesses that he was playing the part of the Zombie to get the people away from the island. He confesses that he is part of a spy ring.

Others in the cast were Janet Schaffer as Troddy, the maid; Joyce Schaffer as Azalea, a lobster-woman; Doug Lutterman as the sheriff. The production was directed by Morris Hendrickson.

NURSES CLUB (Group 2)

Row One: K. Hanson, V. Collier, D. Keim, R. Cabanas, M. St. Pierre, J. Norwil, C. Graybeal. Row Two: J. Smith, J. Bond, J. Elliott, D. Alexander, G. Scheyer, S. Standley, G. Mason, M. Humphreys.

SERVICE GROUPS SPONSOR MANY PROJECTS

Starting the year under the leadership of Marlene St. Pierre, the Nurses' Club had a successful year. Dorothy Alexander served as secretary-treasurer. Advisors were Mrs. Carl Scheyer and Mrs. Kenneth Sturdevant.

Members of the group toured various hospitals, made scrapbooks and stuffed toys for children, held a cake sale, and served as guide for open house at the Good Samaritan Hospital.

Starting the year with installation of new officers, the Future Teachers Club had an active year.

Betty Ramsey was elected president; John MacKay, vice president; Beradine Kluge, secretary; and Arlene Squires, treasurer. J. A. Vanderpool acted as advisor.

This chapter is a part of a state wide group and is sponsored by the Puyallup Education Association. New members were voted in by those already in the club.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

Row One: B. Murphy, R. Ramsey B. Kluge, B. Elliot, J. Shaffer, C. Fox. Row Two: J. Friese, A. Caspersen, D. Biehn, A. Squires, S. Hotz, Mr. Harrell. Row Three: M. Robbins, F. Miller, P. Blanchfield, D. Vesey, B. Siebler, M. Edghill, J. A. Vanderpool.

SENIOR HIGH LIBRARIANS

Row One: L. Jones, C. Ramsey, C. Rice. Row Two: T. Porter, M. Denton, Y. Gendreau, K. Keim. Row THREE: M. Scott, D. Keil, J. Thomas, D. Gulbranson.

JUNIOR HIGH LIBRARIANS

Row One: B. Silvernail, G. Hite, Miss Watson. Row Two: V. Bliner, L. Liening, B. Sherwood. Row Three: J. Braden, C. Stackhouse, B. Harrold, G. Cayo. Row Four: S. Harris, J. Barnett, E. Gale, C. Casida.

STUDENTS GET HELP

The senior high librarians receive very little credit for helping Miss Florence Pfefferle. The girls answered the phone, checked roll, checked books, and helped students find reference materials. The senior high librarians gave up a study period for their duties in the library.

The junior high librarians, unlike the senior high, received credits for working in the library. Miss Jean Watson, instructors, trained the girls. The junior high librarians had work to do and were given tests just like any other class.

HONORARY SOCIETY

One of the hard-working groups in Puyallup High School was the costume committee. They aided in making costumes for the senior play, junior play, and Viking Varieties. Mrs. Alice Cole was the adviser.

Quill and Scroll, like honor society, requires its students to have a "B" average. Membership in the Quill and Scroll may be obtained if a Vanguard student has published 100 inches of copy or 200 inches of advertising. Annual staff members may also qualify by meeting similar high standards.

COSTUME COMMITTEE

PLAY COMMITTEES AID DRAMATIC PRODUCTIONS

Vital parts of any stage production are the make up, property, and publicity committees.

Members of the make up club are assigned certain actors, and much time is devoted to figuring out a plan to make the face fit the character being portrayed. Gertrude Hansen served as advisor and Bob Daily was committee chairman.

Properties are often taken for granted by the audience, but they represent hard work on the part of the property committee. With the help of their advisors Joe Casey and Frank Brown, these students located furniture and accomplished a great deal.

Several weeks before a play or Viking Varieties was presented, the people on publicity committee began work. Posters were made for store windows and stories appeared in the local papers. Serving as general chairman this year was Bob Daily. Their advisor was Miss Elizabeth Buss.

These three committees have contributed much to the success of drama productions at Puyallup.

VIKING LADIES, KNIGHTS HELP IN ACTIVITIES

Viking Ladies and Viking Knights are honorary service organizations, whose members are chosen on the basis of character, personality, scholarship, and citizenship by their classmates and the faculty. Membership is limited to 14 V.L.'s and 12 V.K.'s. These 26 students represent Puyallup High School while ushering at plays, concerts, and all home football and basketball games. The V.K.'s also have charge of raising and lowering the flag, while the special job of the V.L.'s is to show guests around the school, and take care of the trophy case. Advisors are Miss Jean Watson, and Mr. Don Hartung. The organizations are led by Gerda Mayer and Tom Watkin.

The Junior High Pep Club was one of the new clubs started this year. It has about the same principles as the Senior High Pep Club. One of the club's many activities was to promote basketball games and good sportsmanship by making hall banners. The members of it were selected from each home room like the Board of Control. Howard Shull was their advisor.

VARSITY GRIDSTERS TIE RENTON FOR FOURTH SPOT

Walt Campbell, Jerry Carlisle, Doug McLeod, Rod Olson, Gail Palmquist, Dick Phillips, Ken Robertson, J. R. Stroh, Harold Swanson, Dean Thomas, and Roger Ufkes were the 11 seniors on the 1954 football squad. Campbell was named inspirational player and Ed Pletcher was elected next year's captain. Ken Robertson, Rod Olson, and Gail Palmquist were elected to the all-conference team.

The image of victory appears only three times as the 1954 Viking gridiron campaign comes into focus. Winding up with a three won, three lost, and three tied record, the Viks finished Puget Sound league play in a tie with the Renton Indians for fourth place.

First adversary to oppose the Norsemen in 1954 were the Everett Seagulls. Puyallup offensive power was slow to get started and the Gulls winged their way homeward with a 19-6 victory over the Viks.

The Franklin Pierce Cardinals played their first contest in Puget Sound league action against Puyallup and managed to hold the valley men to a 6-6 tie. The Cards went on to lose every other league game of the season, making their effort against Puyallup their best.

Bad luck which was plaguing the Vikings showed no signs of letting up in the Kent-Meridian fray which the Royals copped by a 16-12 tally. The Royals continued their winning ways and became kingpins of the conference by enjoying an undefeated season.

Gail Palmquist and Jerry Williams finally broke through for two last period touchdowns to shake off the Vikings' inability to win as Puyallup downed the Auburn Trojans 13-0.

Fog engulfed the home of the Clover Park Warriors the night they hosted the Viks and before it had cleared, Puyallup had roared back from a 7-7 deadlock in the first half to pile up a 26-7 triumph over the Parkers who took third place in the final league standings.

Besides tying Renton's Indians for fourth place in the loop, Puyallup tied the Redskins in their gridiron encounter, 7-7. The Indians drew first blood but had to stop a late Viking threat, sparked by a long pass interception return by J. R. Stroh to hold the Norsemen to a tie.

The highest and lowest points of the season were reached within the space of one wee kas Puyallup lost to lightly-reguarded Enumclaw and then held championship-bound Highline to a tie.

In the mud of Enumclaw, the Hornets struck three times in the first half and then stopped a Puyallup comeback to mire the championship hopes of the Viks in the sloppy field. Held scoreless throughout the first half, Puyallup's second-half rally was not sufficient to overtake the upset-minded Enumclaw eleven as the Viks bowed 27-19.

Highline's Pirates finally found the key to unlock touchdown territory in the fourth period of their contest with Puyallup. The Bucs scored 13 quick points then to gain a 13-13 tie with the unawed Scandinavians .

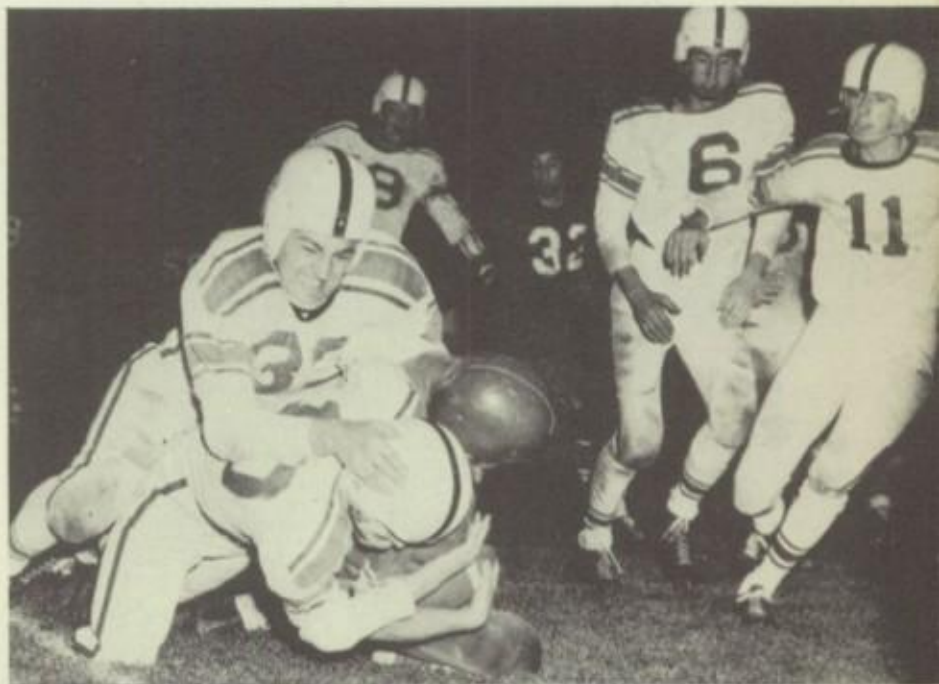

Highline finished second in the league as Puyallup destroyed what was expected to be a co-championship with Kent-Meridian.

For the first time in several years it appeared that the Sumner Spartans might have a great deal to say about who would be the victor of the annual Puyallup-Sumner clash. Scoreboards at halftime registered a 0-0 score and a fourth tie for Puyallup appeared to be in the offing.

Viking power finally punched over two touchdowns in the second half and overcame the Sparts 14-0.

'B' SQUAD FINISHES APPRENTICESHIP YEAR; POSTS FIVE WINS

Hodgins is pulled down by an avalanche of Sumner tacklers.

Sullivan breaks away against Sumner.

Little glory and a lot of work was the lot of this year's "B" squad. They worked as opposition to the varsity ball players and employed the same kind of patterns of offense and defense as rival teams were expected to put in effect.

Even though they worked as dummies for the varsity squad, they posted a five won—three lost record on their own account.

In the first game of the year the seconds went up against the Franklin Pierce reserves and came home with a well-earned shutout, to the tune of 13-0.

Then, in their next game, the "B's" were turned back by a strong Stadium team 7-0, but they then dug in to defeat the Auburn eleven by the same score that they had lost by the week before, 7-0.

The next game was termed the highlight of the year, as the boys from Puyallup came from behind to edge the Tacoma city reserve champs from Lincoln. Puyallup was behind 18-7 at halftime, but gamely fought back and at last came out on top by a score of 20-18.

In a return match with Franklin Pierce, our reserves again came out on top, this time by a 12-6 margin.

The Hornets from Enumclaw stung the Viking reserves by one more point than Puyallup was able to garner against them. The final score was 7-6.

The standouts from this year's crop of junior and sophomore gridmen according to Coach Wasmund were Gary Buchanan, David McCallum, Larry Omerso, Ken Samuelson, and Jon Bentley. The latter two suited up for the varsity games, but did not play enough to get a letter.

JUNIOR HIGH FOOTBALL TEAM WINS TWO, LOSES FOUR

Coach Nicholson

A two won—four lost record was compiled by the Puyallup junior high football team this past football season.

With this record they completed a year of training, and are now ready for three years of senior high competition.

On their first outing the baby Vikings tamed the Kent-Meridian junior high eleven 13-7 as Dennis Woldhagen plunged over for a score, and Terry Ruyle made a 63 yard run for pay dirt to win the game.

The Renton junior high gridders had a field day as they romped over Puyallup's hapless eleven 26-6.

Enumclaw's team, following the example set by their varsity squad took the measure of the Baby Viks by holding them scoreless and by pushing over one score themselves. The final score was 7-0.

Coach Turman

In their annual night game with Sumner the junior high squad came out on top as a result of going 70 yards on a freak pass play. This gave them the game 6-0. In the play Larry Pletcher passed to Roger Chapman, but the pass just bounced off Roger's hands and into the awaiting arms of LeRoy Gustafson, who galloped down the field for the score.

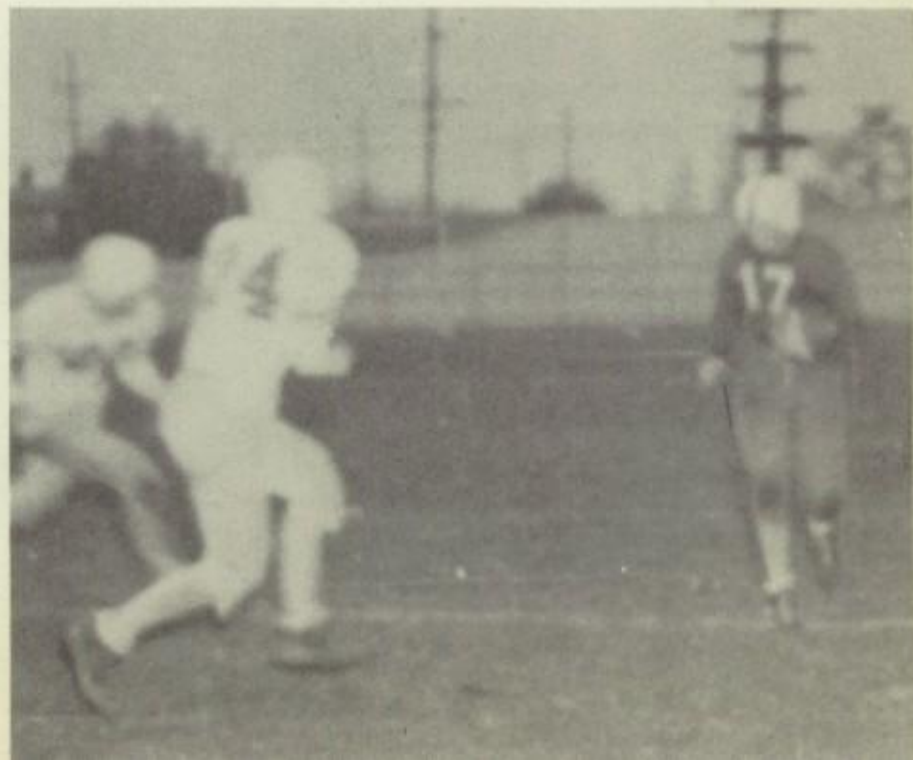

Franklin Pierce junior high also won over the junior Norsemen. Dennis Woldhagen crashed over for one touch-down and Gene Gratzner caught a pass and went over for a second score, but the opposition was too much for the Baby Viks as they went down 20-12.

Doing heavy work for the team were Fullback Dennis Woldhagen and Tailback Terry Ruyle.

VIK TEAM FINISHES SEASON IN STATE TOURNAMENT WITH TWO ONE POINT DEFEATS; LEAGUE RECORD 14-2

Led on to victory by the fine coaching of Dean Nicholson, the Puget Sound League Champions, Puyallup, entered the State Tournament for the first time in three years.

In the first game of the big tourney the Vikings battled the Richland Bombers, called the best team to ever finish as low as fourth, right down to the wire, but lost 62-61.

In the Vikings second game, they defeated the South Kitsap Wolves, 57-43.

The third game of the tournament, the Puyallup five lost to the eighth place Aberdeen Bobcats 72-71, in what was one of the most exciting games of the tournament.

This year's honorary captain was Nello Morganti and inspirational award winner was Walter Campbell.

Morganti and Dave Filkins were named to the all-conference first team. Ron Crowe was named to the second team all-conference.

In All-State rating Nello Morganti was named to the third team. Dave Filkins and Ron Crowe received honorable mention for All-State.

The Vikings finished league play with a record of 14 wins and two losses, and an overall mark of 20 wins and six losses including the district and state tournaments.

The two league losses came at the hands of the Sumner Spartans 42-41 and the Highline Pirates 49-42.

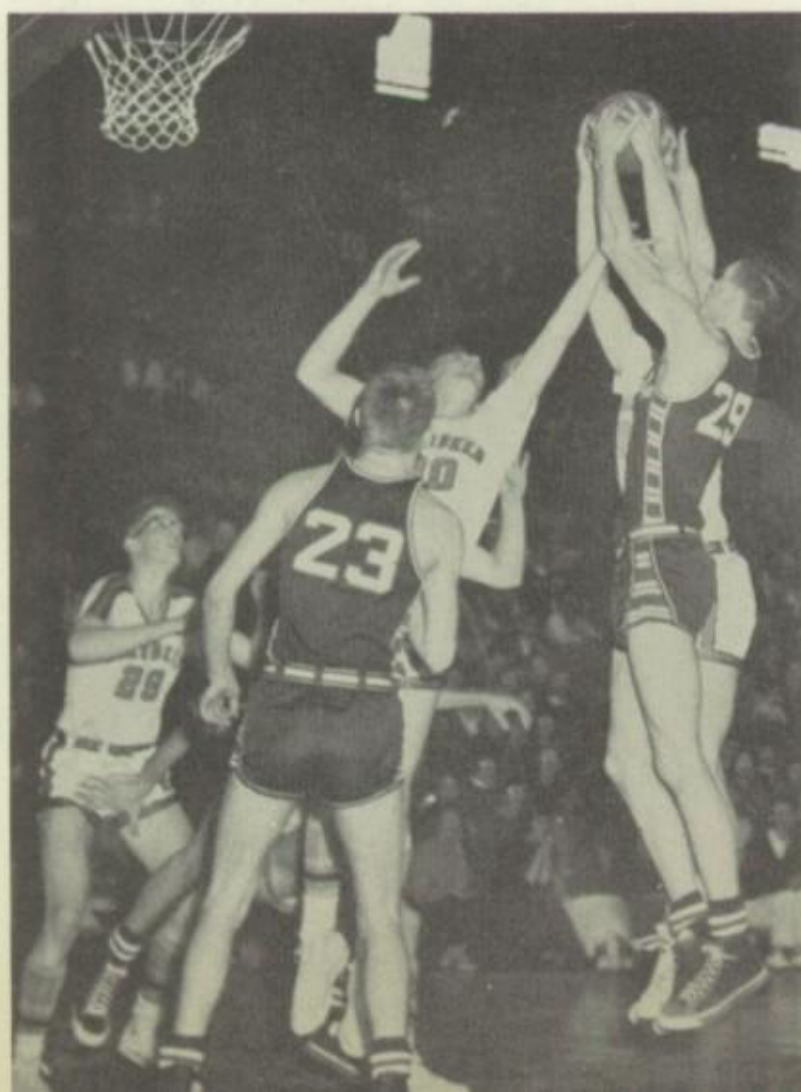

In the West Central District the Vikings defeated South Kitsap 63-42 in the first game. In the second game of the tourney, the Lake Washington Kangaroos fell before the Vikings. In the third game, the Bremerton Wildcats defeated the Vikings 50-42, leaving the Vikings in second place.

'B' SQUAD WINS ELEVEN

Eleven wins and nine losses composed the 1954-55 basketball "B" squad record. Reserve team members during the basketball campaign were Dave Hart, John Judy, Dave Boulet, Jim Johannes, Nick Engles, Dearld Vesey, Paul Morrisson, Jerry Williams, Fred Scheyer, Dick Letourneau, and Al McCoy.

Playing in contests preceding varsity games, the "Bees" compiled double victories over Franklin Pierce and Sumner. Single wins over Elma, Lincoln, Stadium, Olympia, Auburn, Kent, and Enumclaw were also recorded.

Losses were racked up on the Viking reserves by Auburn, Kent, Highline, Renton, Clover Park, and Enumclaw. Highline, Renton, and Clover Park each drubbed the "Bees" twice.

SOPHS SET .550 MARK

Winding up with a record the .550 mark, the Puyallup sophomore basketball squad gathered 11 wins over their opponents while losing nine.

This record was compiled against such teams as the Lincoln Golds, Stadium Golds, Bellarmine, Enumclaw, Stadium Blacks, Sumner, Clover Park, Franklin Pierce, and the Lincoln Blacks.

'BABES' FIND IT ROUGH

Tough opponents made for rough going as far as the 1954-55 Puyallup junior high school basketball season was concerned.

Decisive losses were recorded against the Baby Vikings by a number of their 12 opponents, which included such teams as Stewart and Mason of Tacoma, Kent, Enumclaw, Sumner, Clover Park, and Franklin Pierce.

MATMEN GET LETTERS

The second wrestling team in the history of Puyallup high school was in action during the 1954-55 season, and for the first time the grunt and groaners received letters as a reward for their participation.

Two matches were won over Olympia and one over Lake Washington. Stadium, Lake Washington, and Lincoln were on the list of conquerors of the Vikings.

Ten boys, Ed Park, Frank Park, Jerry Ballou, Brian Jones, Bob Ferguson, Wally Hartshorn, Joe Isaksen, Bill Goelzer, Keith Creley, and Wally Bresch made the trip to Washington State College and the state wrestling tournament.

SENIOR TEAM WINS CLASS BASKETBALL PENNANT

In a close class league race that wasn't decided until the final night of action, the seniors emerged as champions by a narrow one-game margin over the juniors.

The upperclassmen defeated the freshmen and sophomores twice, but had to settle for a split with the juniors, thus winding up with a five won, one lost record. The second-place juniors won four and lost two, the freshmen took third with three wins and three losses, and the sophomore five failed to win a single contest while losing six.

Members of the senior team were Gail Palmquist, Roger Ufkes, Dean Thomas, Doug McLeod, Bill Yates, Tom Watkin, Bill Siebler, Rod Olson, Gary Stainbrook, and captain Jerry Flansburg.

The Trotters won the 1955 intramural basketball championship by winning all games but one. The battle for second place ended in a deadlock between the Clowns and the Fighting Five.

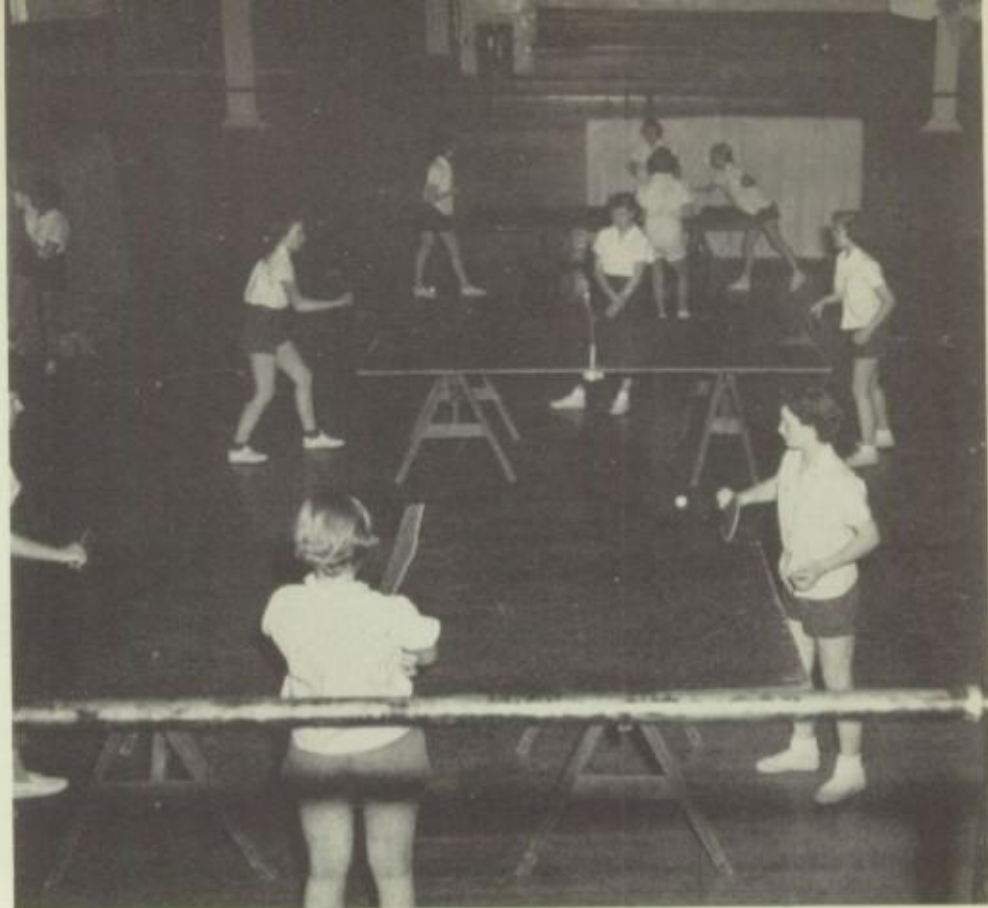

The intramurals are part of the high school basketball program in which students that do not make any of the class league or varsity teams can play one or two evenings a week. Eldon Angelo and Jim Harrell were in charge of the program for both junior and senior high.

The Skunks won the junior high championship by defeating all other teams, going on to an undefeated season. Approximately 120 boys played basketball in the intramural leagues.

P. E. CLASSES LEARN

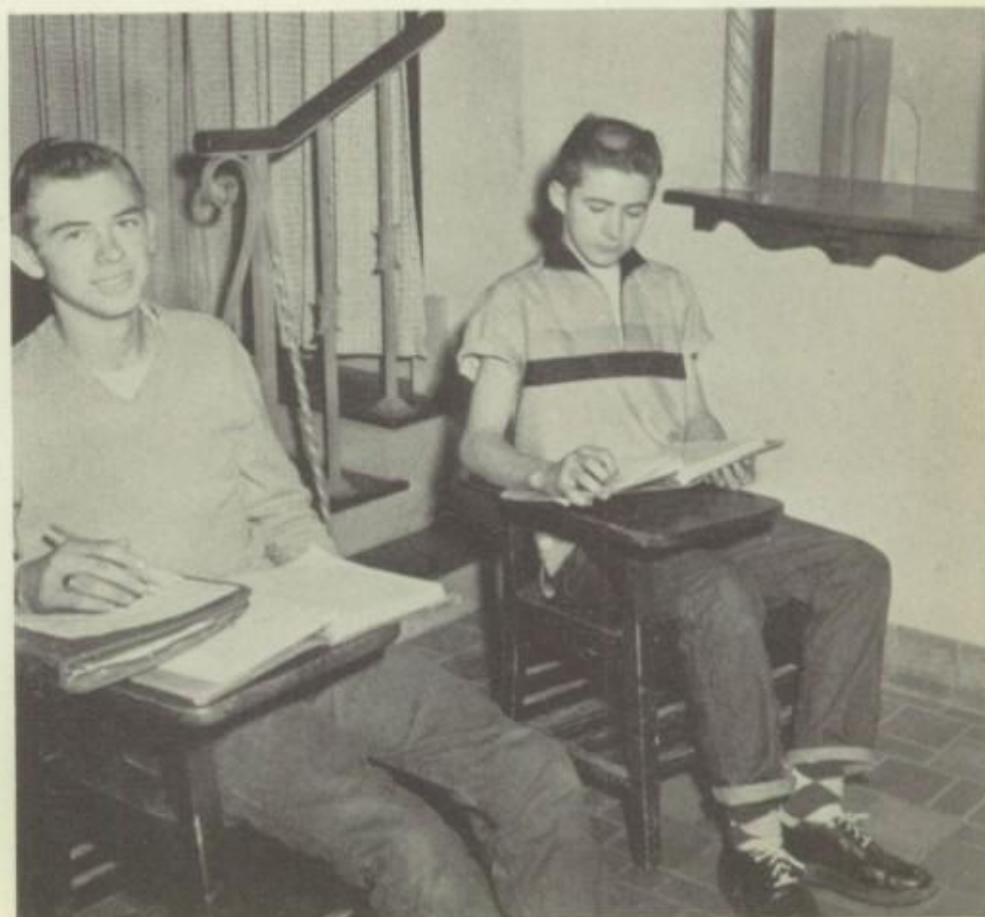

As in other years the freshmen class was only class to have Physical Education because of the lack of facilities and room. P. E. isn't just a class of all play. The boys and girls change alternately between the gym and class room for two week periods.

While in the class room they learn the parts of the human skeleton, personal care, and how to get along with people in every day life. Then when the two weeks that they are in the gym comes they get to practice what they learn, such as, being good sports in playing games. They also learn to dance, play basketball, wrestle and other things of much interest to all.

All this is under the guidance of two teachers, Miss Lorraine Flower and Mr. Carl Wasmund.

G.A.A. PARTICIPANTS HAVE VICTORIOUS YEAR

The girls in the Girls' Athletic Association learn good sportsmanship and teamwork. These factors help them in their lives later on.

This year was an especially good year in the turnouts for all of the sports, including basketball, volleyball, ping pong and badminton. Sophomore, junior and senior girls were eligible to turn out for these sports. Every girl got 100 points for each major sport, and less for each minor activity they participated in. When they earned 550 points they won a letter. Then all girls who earned letters became members of the letter club.

The highest award a girl can earn is the Gold Victory medal and the second highest award is the Silver Victory medal.

The officers of the club this year were: Martha Robbins, president; Mary Abbott, vice president; Connie Grunder, secretary; and Bette Ramsey, sport manager. The adviser of all the girls' sports and the letter club is Miss Lorraine Flower.

The most spirited group this year was the yell leaders and pepsters. It consisted of eight vigorous students. The lively yell leaders were Queen Bette Schakohl, King Danny Vesey, and Duchesses Kay Lasham and Kathy Watkin. Leading all of the songs were Judy Nelson, Rosemary Fly, Sharon Asbjornsen and Dorothy Davidson.

The biggest event for the Drill team this year was the Daffodil Parade. They marched through three cities; Tacoma, Puyallup, and Sumner, in their last big performance of the year. They also performed at four football games. The drill team was led by Judy Lord; the coach was Miss Lorraine Flower, and the manager was JoAnn Brooks.

The group that seems to work the hardest with the least recognition is the Junior High Tumbling Team. They are just preparing for the Senior High Tumbling Team.

The Senior High Tumbling Team entertained Puyallup students and citizens with many exciting and suspense-filled performances this year. They practiced very hard and each performance showed their skill. They were coached by Mrs. Joan Kern, who spent many hours with them.

Because of bad weather, the first game of the season, with Auburn, was rained out. The only other game being played before annual deadlines, was with Enumclaw, with Enumclaw winning 5-0. Other league games had been scheduled with Clover Park, Highline, Franklin Pierce, Sumner, and Kent.

This year the team consisted of four returning lettermen and fifteen rookies. The team was coached by Robert Vollen.

In the girl's teams the seniors are predominant, while sophomores lead the boys.

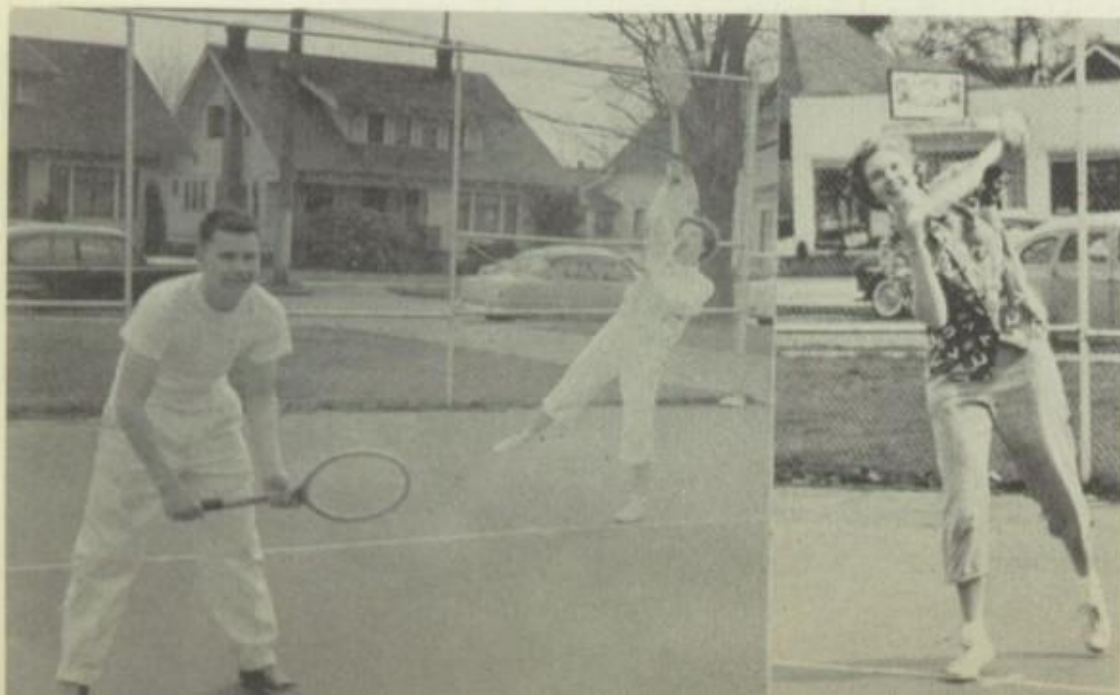

The junior high tennis team did not have a definite schedule to play, because the Puget Sound League does not allow for junior high teams, so Coach Vollen had to arrange some games.

GOLFERS LOOK FORWARD TO WINNING SEASON

This year's golf team was composed of seven members. Leading the list were three returning lettermen, Ron Ferch, Lloyd Hart, and Dave Hart. This was the third year for these three. The other members who were turning out for their first year were Larry Peace, Fred Scheyer, Gary Wegner and John Williams.

Because of bad weather, no league matches had been played at the time the Viking went to press. Turnouts also had been curtailed because of rain and hail.

League matches had been scheduled with Enumclaw, Auburn, Franklin Pierce, Renton, Kent, and Clover Park.

In a non-league practice match played April 20 Stadium won all matches. Dave Hart was medalist for the Puyallup team.

Coaching the golf team for the second year was Joe Casey.

VARSITY NINE STARTS SEASON WITH FOUR WINS

Rain-swept diamonds made the start of the 1955 baseball season slow and muddy. By the time annual deadlines forced a close of our glimpse at the season, the Vikings had played nine games, winning four of them.

B SQUAD BASEBALL

Row One: Mgr. G. Dahmer, G. Buchanan, J. Reichert, D. Anderson.
Row Two: B. Steiner, D. Howard, J. O'Dell, J. Benton, L. Schneider.
Row Three: D. McCallum, K. Samuelson, J. Williams, B. Mercer, Coach Cementina.
Bottom: Catcher Nick Engels hits against Orting.

The schedule started on a dismal note as Clover Park romped merrily over Puyallup 20-3, holding the Norsemen scoreless until the last inning. Prestige was restored to the Viking camp however, with a 7-0 victory over the Auburn Trojans by the strengthened Viks. Kent-Meridian then became the Norsemen's second straight victim, losing 8-7. Clover Park's Warriors again rapped Puyallup, this time keeping the Vikings runless throughout the 6-0 shutout.

Auburn came back after trailing in a rain-canceled game, to stop Puyallup 13-5. Orting dropped an 18-7 slugfest to Puyallup, which sent its bats to work against the outclassed Cardinals. Auburn made it two in a row over the Valley men as they stopped the locals in a 13-7 drubbing.

Franklin Pierce nosed Puyallup 3-2, but the Viks bounced back to top Enumclaw by the same score as the annual deadlines arrived.

Dean Nicholson tutored the varsity nine during their latest campaign, while Ernie Cementina coached the "B" squad nine. The "B's" had played eight games, winning four of them.

Leading hitters on the varsity were J. R. Stroh, .423; Gary Buchanan, .333; Bill Mercer, .333; Harold Swanson, .313; and Nick Engels, .300. Leonard Strandley was hitting .474 to lead the "B" squad. Gene Napoleon was second with .429.

JUNIOR HIGH CINDER TEAM FAILS TO WIN

Not all of the 1955 junior high track season can be pictured in the annual due to deadlines which fell before the season had been completed. As the annual went to press, however, the Baby Vikings had participated in three cinder meets.

The Babes took third in a triangular contest with Auburn and Puget Sound. Another third was earned by Coach Al Jacob's tracksters in a meet with Renton, Sylvan, and Franklin Pierce.

In a dual meet with Enumclaw junior high school, the young Norsemen bowed 37-32, narrowly missing a victory over the Enumclaw cindermen.

Lynn Schaefer was the high point man for the junior high squad, gathering 19 points in three meets. Schaefer participated in the high jump and broad jump. Terry Ruyle earned 13 points through his efforts in the low hurdles, pole vault, and relay.

Ron Stainbrook made 10 points in three meets, taking part in the 660 yard run and the high jump. Ray Johnson, an eighth grader, earned 8 points. Johnson participated in the shot put and displayed promise for next year, according to Coach Jacobs. He was putting the shot over 46 feet as the annual went to press.

VIKING TRACKSTERS WIN ONE MEET, GET FOUR SECONDS

As the track section of the annual went to press, the Puyallup senior high track team had won one meet, placed second in four others, and captured fourth spot in the Highline Relays.

In the first meet of the season the Vikings easily took first place against Fife and Sumner. Next, Clover Park romped over the Puyallupites 83 to 46. Sumner was third with 11 points. In a duel meet with Lincoln of Tacoma, the Abe's out-scored the Viks 72-41.

Puyallup barely squeezed into second place over Auburn's Trojans in a three way meet with Highline. The Pirates took first place by over 20 points.

Renton, one of the powers in the league in track this season, came to Viking field and tamed Franklin Pierce and Puyallup by the score of Renton 76, Puyallup 48½, and Franklin Pierce 15½.

At the Highline relays where many teams in this district assemble, Puyallup placed fourth of the fourteen teams in attendance.

Gail Palmquist was high scorer for the Viking thinclads in the first six meets with 54 points to his credit. Gail threw the shot, ran the 100 and 220 yard dashes, the low hurdles, and was a member of the 880 yard relay team. Other members of the team who earned either a first place or a total of at least seven points which qualified them for a letter were quarter milers Bill Goelzer, and Lawrence Notton; discus throwers Rod Olson, Keith Creley, and Jim Berry; Deald Vesey, who hurdles, broad jumps, and is on the 880 relay team; high jumper Bill Cramer; pole vaulters David Lapitan and Wayne Lockwood; Mike O'Dell, who runs the 220 yard dash and anchors the 880 yard relay team; half miler Gary Stainbrook; and miler David Kalles.

CONNIE GRUNDER, BILL YATES TOP 1955 HONORS LIST

Connie Grunder, valedictorian, maintained a grade point average of 97.4 through senior high school. In addition to this Connie won a Silver Victory Award and was an alternate for the Walker Award. Connie received free board and room at Washington State College for one semester. A few of Connie's activities were: annual staff for three years; orchestra and band for three years; Viking Lady, two; Latineers, two; and Tri-Hi-Y for three years. Her future plans are to enter Washington State College.

With a grade point average of 97.44 for his three senior high years, Bill Yates was announced as the 1955 salutatorian. While here at Puyallup he participated in track, class basketball, and various class dances. He was president of the Student Body, sophomore class president, and a Viking Knight for three years. He won the Science Award for being the outstanding science student in Puyallup High School. Bill was considering several colleges at the time of graduation, including Stanford and Pacific Lutheran College.

34 STUDENTS GET SCHOLARSHIPS;

WALKER AWARD—Winning the highest honor a senior can obtain, Gerda Meyer and Bill Yates were selected to receive the Walker Award. Alternates were Connie Grunder and Bob Daily. Honorable mention went to Martha Robbins and Mel Dennis. Qualifications for the award were: scholarship, 40 percent; character, 20 percent; citizenship, 20 percent; and personality, 20 percent. The award was originally presented by F. B. Walker, former Puyallup schools superintendent.

KARSHNER AWARD—Betty Ramsey and Jerry Carlisle were recipients of the Karshner Award and each receives $200 scholarship to the University of Washington. Runners-up were Joy Stanley and George Kuybus, alternates, and Beatrice Murphy and Chuck Sienkiewicz received honorable mention. They were selected on the following basis: scholarship, 50 percent; character, 20 percent; leadership, 15 percent; and self support, 15 percent.

GIRLS' INSPIRATIONAL AWARD—Janis Platter was voted by senior girls as their inspiration during their high school years. Her name was engraved on the Girls' Inspirational Award plaque.

CARPENTERS' UNION—Copping the $400 scholarship given by Carpenters' Union No. 470 in Tacoma was Bill Yates. Alternate was Wendell Dobson and Bill Siebler got honorable mention. The selection was made on the basis of scholarship, good citizenship, financial need and popularity.

ELMER BENNER SCHOLARSHIP—Having the honor of being the first to win this award, Mary Abbott was presented with the Elmer Benner scholarship. Alternate was Bob Matthews. This scholarship was presented in honor of Elmer Benner, who was killed in an accident in the summer of 1954.

ART AWARD—Because of his outstanding ability in art, Jon Linder won the Junior Women's Club Art Award. The award was based on his all-around interest and participation in the field of art. His name was inscribed on the cup.

ALTRUSA NURSING SCHOLARSHIP—Winning the Nursing Scholarship was Rosie Cabanas. Alternate was Dorothy Keil. The money may be applied to any nursing school in the state.

DRAMA AWARD—Roger Ufkes won the Drama award for the third year it was presented. Bob Daily was named the alternate. This award is presented to a senior who has been outstanding in drama.

ALTRUSA AWARD—Wanda Keller was chosen winner of the Altrusa award given each year to a girl outstanding in Distributive Education. Honorable mention went to Thelma Games. Training and work experience, personality, character, and citizenship were the qualifications on which the winner was chosen.

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP—John MacKay received a music scholarship to Eastern Washington College of Education. He was chosen for his ability and all-round interest in music.

AWARDS IN HONORS ASSEMBLY

JUNIOR HIGH AWARD—Winning the Junior High Kiwanis Club award were Mickey Miller and Roger Dixon. This award, comparable to the Walker Award, was presented by the class of 1925. Alternates were Kristine Erickson and Larry Pletcher; honorable mention went to Karen Erb and Carl Jepsen. Qualifications included scholarship, 40 percent; character, 20 percent; citizenship, 20 percent; personality, 20 percent; and attendance to Puyallup Junior High for three years.

LOGAN AWARD—This year the winners of the Robert O. Logan Scholarship-Athletic Award were Martha Robbins and Rod Olson, while Betty Ramsey and Walter Campbell were alternates. Honorable mention was given to Mary Abbott and Lorange Notton. The award gives recognition to students who excel in both athletics and scholarship. The girls must have earned a letter and the boys must have won a letter in a major sport.

RANSOM-DELANO—The members of the senior high band and orchestra selected Betty Ramsey and Richard Redmond as the winners of the Ransom-Delano Award. This award was established in memory of Betty Ransom, a band member who died during the year, and Elwin Delano, who contracted polio. Janet Sawyer and Rod Olson were the alternates. The winners were selected on the basis of outstanding service and inspiration.

YMCA SCHOLARSHIP—Selected this year by the Hi-Y Council as the winners of the YMCA Scholarship were Sharon Ann Kremer and Wendell Dobson. Alternates were Pat Blanchfield and Larry Wilhelmsen.

ELKS' YOUTH LEADERSHIP AWARD—Janis Platter and Bill Yates were presented with the Elks' Youth Leadership Award and Scholarship. The award was made for outstanding leadership in school, church and community activities, and the winners were presented with $50 by the Elks Club.

P.-T.A. SCHOLARSHIP—Winning the P.-T.A. Scholarship of $150 was Beatrice Murphy, while alternate was Bill Siebler. The scholarship is good to the college of the winners choice.

WOMEN'S CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AWARD—Receiving the Women's Chamber of Commerce award worth $200 was Connie Grunder. It could be used at any college of the winner's choice. This was the second year this ward has been presented.

STUDENTS HONORED FOR WORK IN JOURNALISM, ATHLETICS

Feeling a need for honoring journalism students who had already fulfilled their Quill and Scroll requirement, the publications department initiated a "Big Inch" award this year.

To win the honor, a student must have written over 1,000 inches of copy and advertising while working on the Viking Vanguard or the annual.

Five students qualified for the honor and were awarded bound files of the 1954-55 Viking Vanguard. They were, left, from top to bottom: Jerry Carlisle, Ralph Andresen, Wendell Dobson, David Kalles, and Marvin Hartshorn.

Jerry Carlisle led the qualifiers with 1480 inches published. When the 1,000 inch total has been reached, the journalist has published over 35,000 words of copy.

Four girls and one boy fulfilled requirements for Victory awards. From top to bottom on right they were: Rod Olson, Betty Ramsey, Martha Robbins, Mary Abbott, and Connie Grunder.

To gain his Silver Victory Award, Rod Olson compiled the regulation six major sports letters. Betty Ramsey and Martha Robbins received Gold Victory Awards through their efforts in G.A.A., gaining over 2400 points. Mary Abbott and Connie Grunder gathered over 2100 points in G.A.A. to earn their Silver Victory Awards.

Many students were honored by being named alternate or honorable mention on an award. Students so honored are pictured below. Their names are also mentioned on previous award pages.

HONOR SOCIETY ASSEMBLY BRINGS NEW ZEALANDER

Honor Society, under the leadership of Wendell Dobson, president, co-sponsored an assembly for the senior high student body. Mr. Norman Ducker, a New Zealand exchange teacher, spoke on his homeland and compared it to the United States. Other officers included Connie Grunder, vice-president, and Gail Miller, secretary. Miss Helen Alexander served as advisor for the group.

Representing Puyallup at the annual Evergreen Boys' and Girls' State Sessions starting June 19 will be Sally Newenhof, Robert Montgomery, and Sharon Hotz. Selection was made on the basis of scholastic standing, leadership ability and poise. The purpose of the trip is to teach democracy in action through practical application. The program is designed to further Americanism by showing people what their duties, rights, and privileges are and what they mean. Delegates will learn the workings of city, state, and national government.

Winning first place in biological sciences at the Puget Sound Science Fair was Patricia Kooser with her project of the growth of the Chinook salmon embedded in plastic. Western Washington Weeds was the project of JoAnn DeBolt, for which she won second place in biological sciences.

PUYALLUP MERCHANTS SUPPORT VIKING

The business firms whose names appear on the following pages of the VIKING have helped finance this edition by their advertising. This is the second year that the Viking has used a magazine style layout in advertising, replacing the system of listing just the advertisers names. The staff wishes to express their sincere appreciation to these merchants for their support in helping finance this book.

ANNUAL STAFF LOOKS THROUGH LENS OF "55"

The lens of the camera that has followed us through our six years of Puyallup Junior and Senior High School has focused on the many honors that we have won and the memories of adventures in fun and learning.

We of the 1955 Viking staff wish to thank the faculty and students of Puyallup high school for the cooperation and encouragement they demonstrated throughout the year. Our special thanks we offer to Harold Snodgrass, who diligently advised us in the process of developing your VIKING. We also extend recognition to the Puyallup Valley Tribune for the printing and binding of the annual; to the S. K. Smith for producing the covers.

May this book be your record of special events, classmates, and time spent at P.H.S.
